CLOSING

This 1978 79 Warrior represents hard work and sacrifice on the part of quite a few people, and fid like to thank them.

All of the shadents faculty and staff of West Branch thigh School were really cooperative throughout the year Many class periods were interrupted so that pir could be taken left. To all of those people flow. I feel of thoses

Laurie Crawford, the staff's business manager, and area businesses also were important in producing the Warrior Laurie not only collected and recorded all of the admoney but also did all of the adposes that approximate book. With the help of businesses, we were able to we the ad-sales content sponsored by our publishing company for the lifth consecutive year. We sold over $0.000 in ads between June and September of 1978, which is the most in the history of West Branch. This contributed to the color sections and other costly terms in the yearbook and dilato kept the price of the Warrior down to its usua $8.00 for students.

Next I dilike to thank Jizh Bostjancir and Aney Studios for their fine photography. Jim our student photographer was always around to take a picture when we needed him. Aboy's who did all of the Senior pictures that appears in the Warrior.

Thanks also to our representative from AYC. Kee Briger Ken was always around to help us when we had goest ons or problems. He he ped us pulk the cover mater a endsheets paper and all of the many other things that go into printing a yearbook.

Mrs. Sandra McNott also deserves more recognition than she gets as adviser of the staff. Mrs. M. Raft copied with her usual classics in responsitives as wet as with the annual staff. She not only spont her free periods working in the annual staff room, but also spent many even typiat home checking pages.

After more than nine months the 1978-79 Warrior is finally completed. Everyone on the staff worked reality hard and it shows in the quality of the Warrior. For all of their extra effort, the hours they spent after school and the days of vacation that they worked. I drike to extend a special it anks to the great Warrior staff members. Lisa Denise Kim Terri. Andrea Jeannette Laurie Lorie Kim Janie. Jim. Cindy, and Eurie.
